STUDENT LEARNING SUPPORT SYSTEM

ANNUASL REPORT

Academic year: 2021-2022

- 1. Introduction: The inclusion of the Student Learning Support System in the curriculum was done so to help new students to get the point where they can feel at ease with the material. Furthermore, the system keeps running throughout the course. This system's goal is to make it simple for students to learn about the course and the foundational knowledge needed to grasp it. By identifying the children who are slow performers and advance learners, the program's goal is to improve the student's overall academic performance. The teaching staff can then concentrate on students in a way that will improve various areas of all students thanks to this identification's assistance in categorising them.

STUDENT LEARNING SUPPORT SYSTEM ANNUAL REPORT

ACADEMIC YEAR – 2021-2022

FACULTY OF LAW

Introduction

The Student Learning Support System was introduced in teaching schedule to improve the newly joined students at the point from where they can feel comfortable with the course. Furthermore, the system continues thought the course. The aim of this system was to introduce students regarding the course, its scope, foundation knowledge requires to understand the course. During the continuation of programme, the focus is to improve the overall academic performance of the student by identification of students as Slow performer and Advance Learner. This identification helps in categorisation of students which helps teaching faculty to focus on students in a manner that will improve different aspects of all students.

D. Conclusion

From the analysis of SLSS programme data it is concluded that there was a significant improvement in the status of the students. Most of the students have significantly improved in their academic performance at the end of final examination. Therefore, Remedial programs offered the possibility of focusing on those students who are lagging behind and teaching at a level that is appropriate for their current level of skills.

E. Recommendations, if any

The design individualized educational programmes with intensive remedial support is required to help pupils consolidate their basic knowledge in different subjects, master the learning methods, strengthen their confidence and enhance the effectiveness of learning.

F. Action taken on the recommendations of preceding year

The Regular feedback of all individual courses were implemented, suggestions and feedback from the students were taken so as to help them acquire the learning skills, solve their problems and understand their own capability, thus enhancing self-confidence and improving their learning skills.

Student Learning Support System

ANNUAL REPORT (Academic Year 2021-22)

Introduction:

The basic goal to initiate the student learning system is to educate newly joined students regarding their course, its scope in favour of its utilization as professional and about the primary knowledge required to understand the content of the course. The system continues through the program to make students feel comfortable towards the program. It was introduced to measure and improve the overall academic performance, by the Identification of slow and advance learner and provide them a helpful environment to grow individually by their own pace during limited time frame with the help of concerned faculty member. Mentor mentee System Plays Key role to identify & Motivate slow and Advance learner to groom as Individual Professional.

Report on slow and advanced learners (Academic Year 2019-20):

The Faculty of Agricultural Sciences (FASC) is follow the prescribed syllabus for its teaching. The method of evaluation in the sessional exams is one word and subjective and the questions are framed in such a way that it stimulates the reasoning and analyzing skills of the students. Identifying advanced learners are classified as score of 60% and above, as well as the slow learners scored less than 40% in the qualifying exam. Apart from the formal internal assessment exam, seminars, assignments and activities are given to analyse their learning skills and the remedial and extra classes are given to the students who were found with academic performance is poor.

Identifying Learning Levels of the Students:

The students will be identified as slow and advanced learners based on the following criteria:-

- Based on performance in the class assessed through Seminars / presentation, Formal/ informal assessment through questions and answers
- Based on their examination performance and through Internal Assessments (IA)*

* The outcome is measured through the following criteria

- Marks obtained in the exams in IA, >60 % as advanced learners, and <40% as slow learners.

The following students have been identified in 2019-20 as slow learner:-

Apart from the formal internal assessment exam, seminars, assignments and activities are given to analyse their learning skills and the remedial and extra classes are given to the students who were found with academic performance is poor.

Identifying Learning Levels of the Students:

The students will be identified as slow and advanced learners based on the following criteria:-

- a. Based on performance in the class assessed through seminars/presentation, Formal/ informal assessment through questions and answers.
- b. Based on their examination performance and through Internal Assessments (IA)*

* The outcome is measured through the following criteria

- Marks obtained in the exams in IA, >60 % as advanced learners, and <40% as slow learners.

Academic Year: 2021-2022

FACULTY OF HOTEL MANAGEMENT

1. Introduction: The Student Learning Support System was introduced in teaching schedule to improve the newly joined students at the point from where they can feel comfortable with the course. Furthermore, the system continues thought the course. The aim of this system was to introduce students regarding the course, its scope, foundation knowledge requires to understand the course. During the continuation of programme, the focus is to improve the overall academic performance of the student by identification of students as Slow performer, Mediocre Learner and Advance Learner. This identification helps in categorisation of students which helps teaching faculty to focus on students in a manner that will improve different aspects of all students.

4. Conclusion:

From the analysis of SLSS programme data it was concluded that, there was a significant improvement in the status of the students. Most of the students have significantly improved in their academic performance at the end of final examination. While the First year BHM/B.SC HA/ MHM students still need to improve as the number of advanced learners decreased in final examination.

5. Recommendations, if any: More attention should be given to the first year BHM/B.Sc HA/ MHM

6. Action taken on the recommendations of preceding year: Nil

Student Learning Support System

Annual Report

Academic Year 2021-22

FOE

1. Introduction: The student learning Support system was introduced in the teaching schedule for the students of the Faculty of Engineering and Technology. This system would help to identify the slow and advanced learners. The process of giving additional inputs to the advanced learners and the slow learners is not an effort to make the students average achievers but to make better achievers. Even if the students are identified as slow learners or advanced learners in the class they should not be labelled as the extra ordinary or poor but they need to be treated equally in the class with supportive care and appropriate pedagogical systems so that the talented can make more achievement and the less talented also make their goals in life achieved. The mentoring and facilitating efforts of the teachers and the university administrative system will be a great investment in achieving the best result and performance of the students.

Identification of Slow and Advanced Learners: For newly admitted students, based on their previous academic records and observation of activities and brainstorming sessions during the initial induction / Orientation days, the students are categorized into advanced learners and slow Learners. In subsequent semesters the identification is based on: -

- ☐ University Examination Results
- ☐ Internal Assessment
- ☐ Performance in Extra and Co-curricular Activities
- ☐ In the first phase the students have been identified through their Mid-Term I and II (subject – wise). Those students who have scored more than 70% marks are identified as advanced learners and less than 50% are identified as slow learners. Rest of the students are considered as average students.
- ☐ In second phase the students have been identified based on their End Term examinations result and the students having re-appear in the End-Term Examination would be eligible for remedial classes.

2.2.1 Student Learning Support System

Annual report

Academic Year: 2021-22

FMMT

- 1. Introduction: Faculty of Mass Communication and Media Technology introduced 'The Student Learning Support System' to improve the academic performance of the newly joined students to assist them with the courses.

The primary aim of this process is to introduce students regarding the course, its outcome & scope and fundamental knowledge require to understand the course. During the assessment process this will identify and improve the performance of the students who are Slow Learners and Advance Learners.

The Slow Learners are to be considered to those students who could not secure 50% or failed in the subjects and students who has scored above 50% will be considered as Advance Learners.

- 2. Details of Newly Admitted Students in Undergraduate and Post Graduate Programmes.
