Report of the Webinar/ Event / FDP Program:

a) Introduction:

Cyber crime, unlike traditional crime which is committed in one geographical location, is committed online and it is often not clearly linked to any geographical location. Therefore, a coordinated global response to the problem of cyber crime is required. This is largely due to the fact that there are a number of problems, which pose a hindrance to the effective reduction in cyber crime. Some of the main problems arise as a result of the shortcomings of the technology, legislation and cyber criminology.

b) Objective of the webinar/ Event / FDP:

The activity was intended for the students of Forensic Science at SGT University to understand and apply the significance of crimie scene investigation techniques in the field of forensic science and role of cyber forensic in forensic investigation.
